

THE STAR'S DAILY PICTORIAL PAGE

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, MAY 22, 1922.

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, president of the National Woman's Party, and donor of the $250,000 headquarters, making an address at the dedication ceremonies yesterday afternoon. National Photo.

Group of foreign delegates at the dedication of the headquarters of the National Woman's Party yesterday. Left to right: Mme. Gotting of Czechoslovakia, Miss Susie Chow of China, Mme. Klima of Czechoslovakia, Miss Ballvian of Bolivia and Miss Stepanek of Czechoslovakia. National Photo.

Mrs. Izetta Jewel Brown placing the charter of the National Woman's Party in the corner stone of the headquarters at the dedication yesterday. National Photo.

Mme. Wallenberg, wife of the minister from Sweden, and her daughter, Miss Ingergerd, at the Neighborhood House pageant. National Photo.

Mrs. Rose Gouverneur Hoes, granddaughter of President Monroe, placing a steel engraving of President Monroe in the corner stone of the headquarters of the National Woman's Party yesterday. National Photo.

Mme. Marc Peter, wife of the minister from Switzerland, in charge of one of the booths at the Neighborhood House pageant. National Photo.

Mme. Sadao Saburi, wife of the counselor of the Japanese embassy, and Mme. Hachiro Arita, wife of the secretary of the embassy, in native costume at the Neighborhood House pageant. National Photo.

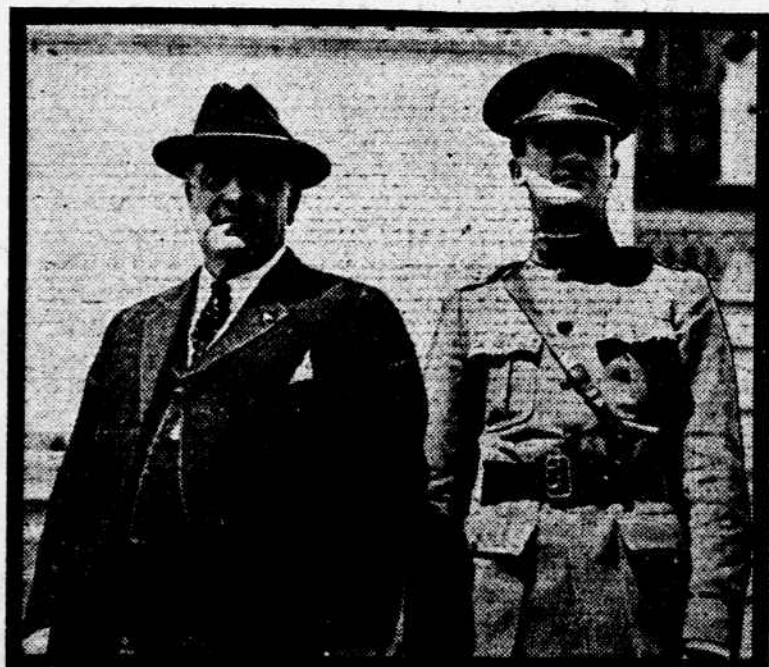

Mrs. Eddie Collins, wife of Chicago's star second baseman; Low Barber, secretary of the Chicago base ball team, and "Uncle Joe" Cannon in a box at the Washington-Chicago game yesterday afternoon. Between innings "Uncle Joe" visited the dugouts of players of the two teams. Photo by Thoner.

All of the new styles do not originate in Paris and New York. Some of them are created right here in Washington. This one is the latest local fashion idea—woolen golf stockings and bare knees—snapped at a polo game in Potomac Park. Photo by Thoner.

Count Laszlo Szechenyi, minister from Hungary, and his family at the Neighborhood House pageant. The children, in native costume, are Cornelia, Alice, Gladys and Sylvia. National Photo.

Gov. Trinkle of Virginia is a visitor in Washington. He was photographed on the steps of the Capitol, accompanied by his military aide, Col. Hiram K. Smith. National Photo.

Miss Irene Thurston of Richmond, Va., representing the American colonial period in the Virginia historical pageant being produced in Virginia's capital all this week. Photo by Foster.

Ivor Novello, English composer of the famous war song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning," who will appear in the movies with Mme. Rejane, French actress. Novello was in the British air force during the war. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

A little discussion of aviation between Representative Manuel Herrick of Oklahoma and "Uncle Nick" Altrock at the Board of Trade shad bake at Chesapeake Beach last Saturday. "Uncle Nick" poses as an authority on the subject on account of seeing the Nationals "go into the air so often." Herrick, of course, is the "dare-devil aviator of Congress." Photo by Bridges.